Peebles & District Riding Club

Data protection

Note that Peebles & District Riding Club (known as 'PDRC') is a not-for-profit organisation and is therefore NOT registered with the UK Information Commissioner's Office.

Keeping your personal information safe is very important to us. We are committed to complying with privacy and data protection laws and being transparent about how we process personal data.

We have policies, procedures and training in place to help our volunteers understand their data protection responsibilities and follow the data protection principles.

We have a nominated committee member who serves as our Data Protection Lead. If you have any questions regarding our Privacy Policy, please email Wendy Muir (warstewart@hotmail.com).

This privacy policy relates to our use of any personal information we process about you.

How we collect personal data

We may collect your personal data in different ways, for example:

- when you, your parent or guardian, your tutor or coach communicate with us by post, telephone, SMS, email or via our website
- from the information you provide to us when you make an application to become a member of wish to volunteer for us
- from the information you provide to us when you apply to become a member of our Groupspaces website
- as you interact with us in other ways; as a contractor, participant in our activities or in any other capacity

How we use personal information

We collect and use personal information about our members, supporters and volunteers for different purposes, in particular:

- Membership applications, administration and renewals
- Informing members and non-members about horse-related events and activities
- Provision of training courses to individuals
- Running events
- Dealing with complaints and appeals
- Undertaking safeguarding activities including DBS checks and casework
- Volunteer recruitment

We only collect personal information that we genuinely need.

This may include:

- Contact details such as name address, email address and phone numbers
- Date of birth and gender
- Dietary requirements where this is required for catering
- Qualifications
- Name of your parent or guardian (if you are under 18)
- Name and contact details of any next of kin where you are attending an event and are riding

Membership applications, administration and renewals

We will use the information that you provide to us to process your membership application and renew your application if appropriate. We will email and post you information about events, courses, our services and other items of interest, as part of your membership. You can opt out or unsubscribe from receiving this information if you wish. Our legal basis for using your personal information in this way is for the performance of a contract.

Informing members and non-members about horse-related events and activities

If you opt in to our mailing list via our Groupspaces site, we will use the information that you provide to email you information about our own events and activities, and other items of interest to horse riders in our catchment area. You can opt out or unsubscribe from receiving this information at any time if you wish. Our legal basis for using your personal information in this way is consent.

Provision of training courses to individuals

If you sign up to one of our training courses, we will use the information that you provide to us to process your registration and provide the course to you. Our legal basis for using your personal information in this way is for the performance of a contract.

Running events

If you register for one of our events, we will use your information provided to us to process your registration and enable you to attend the event. This will include sharing some of your information with our volunteers that run the event. It may also include collecting and sharing medical information with them if you choose to provide that to us. Our legal basis for using your personal information in this way is for the performance of a contract.

If you choose to provide us with your dietary requirements we may share them with third parties that we use to provide catering at our events.

Dealing with complaints and appeals

If a complaint or an appeal is raised with us, we will process the personal information that is provided to us to manage and resolve the complaint or appeal. This may include sharing relevant information with an affiliated organisation, such as the BEF or a riding club, a coach, welfare officer or other organisation, depending upon the nature of the complaint and the area it relates to. Our legal basis for using personal information for this purpose is to fulfil our legitimate interest and fulfil our objective of resolving complaints in a careful and appropriate manner.

Undertaking safeguarding activities including DBS checks and casework

When necessary, we process relevant personal information about members, volunteers, coaches and employees for safeguarding purposes. This might include undertaking DBS and other checks to identify any criminal and other activity we need to be aware of and casework. It may be necessary to share some personal information with relevant authorities such as the police, The Safeguarding Advisory Board and an appropriate member of the respective Member Body – such as The BEF, The Pony Club or a BRC Riding Club (as appropriate to the safeguarding activity). Our legal basis for this processing is to meet our legal obligations.

Volunteer recruitment

If you provide us with information about yourself, such as a resume or curriculum vitae, in connection with a job or volunteer application or enquiry, we may use this information to process your enquiry. We will not store this information for any purpose other than that relating to your application. Our legal basis for using your information in this way is for our legitimate interest.

Cookies and aggregate information collected from

<http://groupspaces.com/PDRC/>

We use Groupspaces to provide us with web presence. Groupspaces may use cookies and log files to store information about how you use our website. A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's computer tied to information about the user. This enables them to create a profile which details your viewing preferences. They may use your profile to tailor your visit to Groupspaces sites, to make navigation easier and direct you to information that best corresponds to your interests and country.

Aggregate information is collected from users using our own web tracker. This information includes users' Internet Protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, platform type, date/time of visit, number of clicks, error pages and number of unique visits.

This information is not linked to personal profiles or to personally identifiable information provided by users. Groupspaces may use it to analyse visitor trends and use of our website, administer the website and to gather broad demographic information of our website users. The legal basis for using your information in this way is for our legitimate interest.

Our legal basis for processing personal information

Our legal basis for the purposes that we process personal information is for the performance of a contract, or for our legitimate interests or consent.

We may process personal information because it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party (or to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract). For example, we may process your personal data:

- To issue or administer a membership
- To administer an activity or event we are organising and you wish to participate in

We may collect and use your personal data if it is necessary for our legitimate interest and so long as its use is fair, balanced and does not unduly impact your rights.

We will ask for your consent to send you marketing emails and text messages. You can withdraw consent for this at any time.

Usually we will only process sensitive personal data if we have your explicit consent. In extreme situations, we may share your personal details with the emergency services if we believe it is in your 'vital interests' to do so. For example, if someone is taken ill during one of our events.

Sharing personal information

We will only share your personal information where we are required to fulfil our contract with you, or legitimate interest, where we have your consent, or we are required to do so by law.

We may share your personal information with third party organisations that will process it on our behalf, for example a mailing house, our website administrator or printers.

If necessary, we may also share your information with caterers, course providers, judges or instructors.

We may also share your information with our bank to process a payment; our professional advisers (such as our legal advisers) where it is necessary to obtain their advice; and our IT support and data storage providers.

Where required, we will process personal information to comply with our legal obligations. In this respect we may use your personal data to comply with subject access requests; tax legislation; for the prevention and detection of crime; and to assist the police and other competent authorities with investigations including criminal and safeguarding investigations.

Transferring personal data outside of the EEA

PDRC does not transfer data outside of the EEA.

Your rights

If you no longer wish to receive communications about our own and our supporters activities, please contact our membership secretary (warstewart@hotmail.com).

You also have the right to:

- Request a copy of the information we hold about you. Requests should be addressed to info@peeblesridingclub.org.uk. We will respond within 30 days of receiving your written request.
- Tell us to change or correct your personal information if it is incomplete or inaccurate. Please contact us at info@peeblesridingclub.org.uk.
- Ask us to restrict our processing of your personal data or to delete your personal data if there is no compelling reason for us to continue using or holding this information. Please contact us at info@peeblesridingclub.org.uk.
- Receive from us the personal information we hold about you which you have provided to us, in a reasonable format specified by you, so that you can send it to another organisation. Please contact us at info@peeblesridingclub.org.uk.
- Object, on grounds relating to your specific situation, to any of our processing activities where you feel this has a disproportionate impact on you. Please contact us at info@peeblesridingclub.org.uk.

Please note that we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply: for example, if we have reason to believe that the personal data we hold is accurate or we can show our processing is necessary for a lawful purpose set out in this Privacy Policy.

How long we keep your personal information

We will hold your personal information for as long as is necessary. We will not retain your personal information if it is no longer required. In some circumstances, we may legally be required to retain your personal information, for example for finance or audit purposes.

- We will keep membership records whilst your membership is active, in order to administer our membership scheme, and for no more than three years after the membership has lapsed
- We will keep records of events for a minimum of 1 year, in order to facilitate any insurance claim resulting from the activity.

Changes to this policy

This Privacy Policy may change from time to time and we will publish the latest version on our website under the General Information tab. We recommend that you visit this webpage periodically to keep up-to-date with the changes in our Privacy Policy.

Making a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office

If you are not satisfied with our response to any query you raise with us, or you believe we are processing your personal data in a way which is inconsistent with the law, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office whose helpline number is: 0303 123 1113.
